

Fortitude Fellowship Program is designed to support women, girls and all progressives in building their skills and courage in the pursuit of justice. Working to change our community is never easy, and takes focus and fortitude. The Fortitude Fellowship Program is designed to build a bench of progressive leaders through leadership development, political campaign training including volunteer coordinating, campaign management, and call time management. Fellows will also learn about research, public policy, community organizing. Qualified fellows will be placed with a non-profit or government office for 3-6 months, with the goal of permanent job placement.
